WINNER: Holborn

There were quite a few changes in this category from 2014 to this year, with the top spot in 2015 now occupied by Holborn, which rose from fifth place last year with a score of 6.58 out of 10, ahead of last year's top dog JLT Re with a score of 6.50.

TigerRisk Partners climbs from fourth place in 2014 to third in 2015 with a score of 6.45, ahead of Lockton, which goes from seventh place in 2014 to fourth place this year with a score of 6.34.

BMS falls from third place last year to fifth place with a score of 6.18, just ahead of RFIB, which remains in sixth place with a score of 6.16. Arthur J Gallagher rises from 10th place in 2014 to seventh with a score of 6.08 and RK Harrison also rises from ninth last year to eighth with a score of 5.86.

However, Matrix Brokers falls from second place in last years' awards to ninth in this category this year, with a score of 5.64, ahead of Howden which falls from eighth place in 2014 to 10th place this year with a score of 5.63.

The score shows the average score out of ten that each company received in the 2015 survey.

The shortlist was presented to respondents in a random order.
